Getting Certified

The New York State Education Department (NYSED) certifies teachers for employment in New York State’s public schools.

Certification

- The availability of the individual evaluation pathway to Certification has been extended to September 1, 2013 for applicants seeking certificates in all classroom titles except childhood education. For more information go to http://www.regents.nysed.gov/meetings/2011Meetings/September2011/911.monthmat.html#BOR.

- Regents Item September 2011: Proposed Revisions to the New York State Teaching Standards (60KB)

- No Longer Printing Time-limited Certificates

Access our TEACH Online System and view a list of TEACH Services relating to certification and fingerprinting.
Get Fingerprinted

> All applicants for school-based employment within the New York City Department of Education, whether for full-time or substitute, must be fingerprinted, either by the state or the NYC DOE

> If you've already been fingerprinted by the state or the NYC DOE, you need to complete the applicable form to have the results be transferred from one to the other
  - OSPRA 103 form - transfers results from NY state to NYC DOE
  - OSPRA 104 form - transfers results from the NYC DOE to NY state
