HST 389
Themes in American Women’s History
“The New Woman”

The College of Staten Island/CUNY
Professor Lavender
Fall 2009
Table of Contents

I. Introduction: The New Woman in Context

II. Representing The New Woman

III. The New Woman and Politics

IV. The New Woman and Race

V. The "New Negro Woman"

VI. The New Woman and Immigration
VII. The New Woman and Intermarriage

VIII. The New Woman, Motherhood, and The Family

IX. The New Woman and Sex

X. The New Woman and Her Body
A. Charlotte Perkins Gilman, The Yellow Wall Paper (1892)

XI. The New Woman at Work

XII. The New Woman On/In Film
XIII.  The New Woman and Cultural Production (Behind the Scenes)

XIV. The New Woman Abroad

ADDITIONAL COURSE RESOURCES (available in CSI Bookstore)
Holly Pyne Connor, Off the Pedestal: New Women in the Art of Homer, Chase, and Sargent (Newark: Rutgers University Press, 2006)

Merely Margy Comic Strip, by John Held Jr., 1929

"Mother, when you were a girl, didn't you find it a bore to be a virgin?"

1927 Cartoon